

Counsellor 2018

We are seeking a qualified Counsellor to join our counselling team for 4 hours per week commencing Term 1 2018. The successful applicant will need to be tolerant and understanding with respect to the unique working environment.

Skills should include a recognised counselling qualification; have clinical knowledge of, and the ability to apply, at least one counselling modality; understanding their clinical limitations; be willing to engage in work place and external supervision, the latter, outside work hours; be developing their ability to critique / analyse their own clinical work; have a strong work ethic; be able to act as a relief Counsellor; be available, in principle, for extra hours on rare occasions of significant trauma; advocate for their clients; be able to work independently; have, or be working towards, provisional or full NZAC membership or equivalent.

Please apply by sending a covering letter, C.V. and the names of 2 referees to headmasterspa@nbhs.school.nz

Applicants should be aware that non-referees may be approached for comment and an appropriately positive response to a police check is essential.

For more information or discussion, please contact Rob Silver on 021 109 4820 before 23/12 or after 8/1.

Applications close at 4pm on Monday 15 January 2018
